

Room 2
Looking Ahead Weekly Newsletter
Week of October 8, 2023

Dear Room 2 Families,

This week Room 2 will continue talking about leaves and apples! During circle time, we will be having an apple taste testing and the children will have the choice to try a red, green and yellow apple. Then they will vote on their favorite color apple to eat.

We will also be opening a farm stand in our dramatic play area with the newspaper fruit and vegetables that the children made last week. Eventually, we will add a cash register and they can do some pretend food shopping!

Below are some of our upcoming activities, books, and songs for the week.

Activities:

- leaf rubbings with crayons
- zen gardens at the sand table
- painting with cookie cutters
- puzzles
- ABC blocks with animals on the rug
- peg boards
- silly putty
- gluing apples on top of photos of childrens' faces (like the book)

Books:

- Apple Harvest (Calvin Harris)
- Carrot Soup (John Segal)
- Ten Apples Up on Top (Theo LeSieg)
- Green Tractor (Kersten Hamilton)

Songs and/or Chants:

- We've Been Waiting for You
- Gray Squirrel

Reminders:

- If you plan to come visit the classroom and have not completed a CORI form, please be sure to check in Sharon Sharifi about completing one prior to your visit. She can be reached at 508-358-7072 or shaon\_sharifi@waylandps.org.
- The Special Education Parent Advisory Council (SEPAC) is looking for a parent volunteer to be a preschool liaison. If you are interested, please reach out to Katie Riffle at katieriffle8@gmail.com.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
Shayna
